Edition 1 - April 2006

A Message from Pete:

“Welcome to the first issue of the ProAdventure Newsletter - a fully interactive monthly publication to keep you up to date with what’s going on at ProAdventure!”

Last Month’s Instructor Training Course Round-up:

During March we ran two weekend training courses - Rescue Emergency Care (REC) First Aid , and the Mountain Bike Instructor Award Scheme (MIAS) Levels 1 and 2. Both courses were successful, and everyone had a great time, despite (or perhaps because of) the snow!

Details of these courses can be found on our website:

Our Instructor Training courses are hugely popular - contact us today to find out which courses we are running at the moment!

Customer Comment of the Month:

“All the instructors were fantastic - thanks for an awesome week!”
- Edward

Out and About!

This is the section of the newsletter where we tell you what we've been up to this month - hopefully you'll want to come and join us!

- Pete C has finally got back in a kayak after breaking his back skiing earlier in the year - well done Pete!
- Rich W, Rich S, Pete S and Woz have all been doing lots and lots of kayaking (or so their girlfriends say!), with various trips in and around Llangollen, into Snowdonia, oh, and up to Scotland as well!
- Rich W, Woz and Sal have been going out birdwatching as often as possible - and have seen all sorts of exciting birds, including Dippers, Wheatears, Red Kites, Ospreys, and a pair of Peregrines! No sign of the elusive Ring Ouzel yet - but we're still keeping an eye out! If you are interested in guided birdwatching walks, please contact us.

If you have any suggestions about what to include in the next Newsletter, let us know! Email news@proadventure.co.uk with your ideas. Any clean jokes are also welcome!
